

JUSTIN MIN

INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHY

Justin Min is a Class A Member of the PGA of Canada. Justin began golf at the age of 8 in Korea, and continued training when he moved to Canada at the age of 12. He grew up as an elite junior golfer in British Columbia as he won several awards in BCGA, CJGA, and MJT events. Also, as captain of his high-school golf team, Justin led his team to the BC Provincial Championship. Justin joined the PGA of Canada in 2008 at the age of 21, and at the same time, was able to successfully obtain his BA degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from UBC in 2011.

Since then, Justin has now instructed over 8500 hours of lessons to juniors, adults, seniors and a variety of groups. He can skillfully support you in becoming a stronger player and help increase your enjoyment in the sport of golf.
